

What Past Couples Say ...

"The marriage course has benefited us in numerous ways but to put it into one sentence that's tough! Here it goes- Having four children and full time ministry we don't really have 'us time,' the marriage course helped us to create and value this time together. It's in this time that we learn to enjoy our many differences and resolve any issue that come up."

"We didn't have the privilege to attend pre-marital counseling so the Marriage Course has blessed us with new insight on what marriage really is and how to navigate through the calm and storms of marriage".

"We found the course relaxed, easy going & non-threatening making it easy for us to open up to each other on very important matters that are seldom discussed. The course was a good reminder to us of the many good & helpful practices that a couple should adhere to. We would certainly recommend the course to other couples especially first timers."

"The Marriage Course is different because it reminded us the importance of setting a weekly time together – this helped us to draw closer & rediscover each other – especially in these busy days."

"We've been happily married for 9 years, actively parenting 3 growing kids and managing our corporate jobs in the hustle bustle of KL life! The marriage course over 7 lessons was both refreshing and practical - sprinkled with timeless marriage principles and easy to apply into our day-to-day husband wife relationship. It was great to see young and very 'matured' married couples blessed wonderfully!"

"Through the ' Marriage Course' , we learn about each other's 'Love Language'. We now focus on these to enhance our marital relationship. In particular, we always look forward to our 'Marriage Time' - a much valued time for just the two of us."

"The marriage course has certainly helped us - our love is stronger, our home is happier, and our family is growing bigger!"

"The Marriage Enrichment Course gave us a unique opportunity to reflect on our marriage over the last 24 years. We had our storms on few occasions and thank God we managed to pull through each time. But now we can look forward to the next 25 years with more hope and cheerfulness as the Marriage Course has equipped us with essential tools that can suppress any storms before they even have a chance to surface. We also learnt that so long as we put GOD in the centre of our marriage, our marriage will just bloom like beautiful flowers in the garden, guaranteed."
